MARSTON HAS CLOSE CALL

· Scott and Jennings Both Give Schoolboy Real Battles in Early Rounds.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., No. 28 .- It did not prove much of a task for Walter J. Travis to win his first two matches in the gold tournament of the Country Club of Lakewood to-day. The Garden City veteran reached the semi-final bracket by eliminating Harold A. Steiner of Inwood in the morning and T. C. Richardson of the home club in the afternoon, and won both matches by a substantial margin.

His closest rival in the qualifying round yesterday, Max R. Marston of Baltusrol, the interscholastic champion, also came through the day successfully, though both morning and afternoon his matches were closer than were those of the former national champion, who has won so many Lakewood tournaments. As his opponent in the upper semi-final bracket to-morrow morning the schoolboy golfer will have S. K. de Forest, the best of the home players, while the "old man" will play J. F. Shanley of Deal in the lower

A drizzling rain and a wet and muddy course underfoot did not tend to improve the quality of the golf played to-day and no especially low scoring was done. Both of the favorites drew golfers who finished well up in the qualifying round for their morning matches. Travis found things even more easy Travis found things even more easy than generally was expected in his match against Steiner, and the veteran soon had a comfortable lead. He won by 4 up and 3 to play. In the meantime Marston was having a hard struggle against Garfield Scott of Philadelphia. At the eleventh the Philadelphian was 2 up, but Marston won the thirteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth and the match by 2 up that could be expected.

Unmindful of War Tars Play Baseball

7ERA CRUZ, Mexico, Nov. 28 .--Tars from the battleships Virginia and Michigan forgot all about war and rumors of war yesterday and turned to the national game as a part of the Thanksgiving Day celebration. Teams from the two ships came ashore and, with Old Glory flying from the flagstaff, engaged in a game of baseball, which, if not of big league quality, provided a novel entertainment for many of the spectators. The Virginia boys knew a lot more of inside ball than their rivals, and won by a score of 15 to 1.

RED SOX MAY BEGIN LOCAL BALL SEASON

Line to Open With New Yorks at Polo Grounds on April 14.

BRAVES FOR EBBETS FIELD

Giants' Turn to Play First Game in Philadelphia-Dodgers Want Joe Tinker.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pirates, who is the National League's schedule maker, will confer over the major league playing dates in Pittsburg to-day. As the schedules are framed on the rotary plan it is probable that the American League season in the East will open at the Polo Grounds and in Philadelphia, while the National League race Mrs. A. O. Van Heusen Alone begins in Brooklyn and Boston on the ame day, April 14.

Last year the Boston Braves started the campaign on April 10 with the Giants at the Polo Grounds, while the Brooklyns, after a special opening at Ebbets Field with the Quakers on April 9, opened up in Philadelphia the next day. The New York Americans started the season n Washington on April 10, the Athletics opening in the Hub. Using these dates s a basis for the new schedules the American League season here should be opened by the Chancemen with the Boston Red Sox on April 14, while the Washingtons will hook up with the Athletics in Philadelphia. The same day would be allotted to the Giants in Boston, with the Philadelphias in Brooklyn.

Johnson, in discussing the schedule or uling of the Giants in Brooklyn on this this afternoon the attendance was all that could be expected.

Mrs. A. O. Van Heusen benched a magnificent lot of Chow Chows, Samoyedes and toy spaniels. Altogether she entered for competition fifty-five dogs.

The Washingtons played the first Amer-F. C. Jennings of Nassau almost ended Marston's career in the afternoon round, for a twenty foot putt for a two on the eleventh green squared the match and put Marston in danger. The next three were halved and then Jennings, who had been putting well all day, missed short putts on the sixteenth and seventeenth greens and saw the match slip out of his grasp.

A number of other interesting matches were played in the four divisions, all of which were brought down to the semi-finals. In addition to the match play tomorrow there will be the usual handicap with prizes for the best gross and net scores. The summaries:

The Washingtons played the first American League game lere last season on April 17, with the Red Sox in Philadelphia, the Glants in Boston and the Brooklynis' game with the Phillies at Ebbets Field having been brought forward to April 9. Johnson and Dreyfuss will try again to reduce the conflicting dates to a minimum, a task that takes much time and involves sixteen clubs, each looking for the best possible allotment.

If it is decided to schedule the Athletics for the Polo Grounds on April 14 twill be necessary to assign the Red Sox in Philadelphia, the Glants in Boston and the Brooklynis' game with the Phillies at Ebbets April 9. ### BASKETBALLERS DISCUSS LAWS.

New Rules. .

The interpretation committee on college basketball recommended changes in the wording of two rules at the annual conclave held at the Hotel Astor yestrday afternoon. A rule referring to a player who jumps for a ball and falls to keep his hands behind his back until his feet are off the floor called for much discussion. A foul will be called on offenders.
